

Brenda Sue Ehbrecht

August 30, 1945 - January 3, 2026

Brenda Sue Ehbrecht, age 80, passed away on January 3, 2026. Born on August 30, 1945, Brenda lived a life defined by devotion to her family, pride in her work, and a kind nature.

In 1969, Brenda completed beautician schooling and proudly maintained her cosmetology license throughout her life. Following her licensure, she managed El Cajon Beauty Supply, where she specialized in custom men's hair pieces. She continued in this role until 1985, earning respect for her expertise and professionalism.

In 1985, Brenda began a new chapter in her career by attending Farmers Insurance Customer Service School, completing a week of training to become a certified Customer Service Representative. Beginning in 1987, she managed Ehbrecht Insurance Services, leading a team of seven with care, precision, and strong leadership. In 1994, Brenda and her husband incorporated their business, where she served as Vice President and Chief Executive Officer, roles she held with pride and dedication.

Brenda is survived by her loving husband Frank; her children, Teresa and Jeff; her step-children, Julie and Kathy; and a large and cherished family that includes many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and one great great-grandchild. Her legacy lives on through each generation she helped shape and nurture.

She will be remembered for her enduring selflessness, strong work ethic, and the lasting impact she had on those who knew and loved her.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Brenda's memory to lung cancer research.
