“ First and formal I want give my condolences to Gabriel’s family. He was family to us too, he was such an amazing soul. Amazing person, there is so many things i can share about him. We all loved him! He did so much for our family. It just doesn’t sit right to me that’s he gone, it hurts a lot. I’ve never seen my dad (roger) hurt, like he is right now in finding out his brother is gone 🕊️😞. Finding out the news just hit us hard, we all didn’t want to believe it. We just all need to stay strong, bc that’s how gabriel will like to see us. Forever in our hearts, not a day will go by without thinking about the memories we had with him. I will forever cherish these moments. I just wanna share a few memories that I had about him. The first one is when he gifted me shoes for my graduation, something that he didn’t need to do, but the amazing person he is, he did! I will forever appreciate it! The other ones is when we would go off-roading, when we went to the drive-in, when I pranked him, when we sat outside until 1am bc our dogs were giving birth, like i said there is much more memories, but those are the memories highlights that I had with him that were fun and funny. Anyways, I thank him for making so much amazing memories with us that we can always cherish and remember you as an amazing human soul. We love you gabriel, and you will forever be miss. ALWAYS IN OUR HEART ❤️! Until we meet again 🕊️😞❤️🙏

“ My deepest condolences to Gabriel's family he was a good friend to my husband Alex (Chato) and he had a good heart. My husband is very upset at this news and even more that he cannot be here. I am forever grateful to anyone that looked out for my husband and my heart goes out to the family but even more to Gabriel's mother having lost 2 sons. May God give you the strength you need in this difficult time
