“ George and I worked together 20+ years ago, and became friends. Wild Child concerts, Tom Grant shows, Las Vegas. One of the Wild Child concerts got a little wild when the lead singer jumped up on the tables and a wine bottle went flying. We were invited back stage later and met the band. A little reliving the 60's. He was so much fun as my friend and co-worker. But there was a serious side to him as well. George spoke often of family, and I could tell how important his entire family was to him. We had been out of touch for many years, but around a year ago he contacted me and it was so good to get caught up on all the changes in both our lives. He proudly told me about his grand children, daughters. Such a good man that I will always remember with fondness. May God give comfort and peace to his family ,his friends and everyone whose life he touched in some way. He touched mine. With Love, Lynda Myles

“ George, who was my best friend, and I would play a different up market golf course every week, he would chose one week, me the next. He used to watch me retrieve balls from the water with my ball retriever. When my wife found that I had a spare one I gave it to George. From then on, he would be the first to jump out of the cart and dive into the bushes looking for balls!!!! We always found so many and he saved his for his grandson.
