“ Ray was like a second father to me. He taught me so much out of life. Never be afraid of anything and has always loved me no matter the choices I made. I am sad to hear that he passed but he will always remain in my heart. I love you papa.

“ I will always remember my dad for his great sense of humor, he loved good food and good music but mainly he was young at heart. He taught me to stay young at heart- I will always thank him in believing in me. Love and miss you dad.

“ My brother 'Guero' lived life to the fullest. He worked hard, was bold and passionate. He loved to work on cars, the classics. I also remember our great family dinners at Pinnacle Peaks, for birthdays, holidays or an excuse to get together. He could wear a black cowboy hat like no other. But mostly I remember his great sense of humor and how he always looked out for me growing up. I will miss him, but he will always be remembered.

“ Guadalupe “Guero” Fredericks was a good man and I’ve always respected him and for his love of his family and mine. He and his twin brother, Paul “Prieto” and sister, Del Mar Smith, were my second cousins as, their grandmother, Ramona, was my Dad’s oldest sister. And, growing up, we lived not far away from each other and did many family birthdays and events, together. Plus, most of us while growing up and going to high school, had worked at their uncle Al “Pelon” Johnston(my Dad) El Carrito restaurant on 21st and Logan Ave. But, as the years past, I did not see him very much but, I still kept in touch through the years with his mother, Mary Helen Espinoza at her birthdays or, at other family weddings. I will miss his smile, friendship and his dry sense of humor. May he Rest In Peace!

“ I will always remember my Uncle Ray treating me just like one of his own. He always gave me love, never sugar coated anything for me, gave it to me just the way he was thinking. I could always talk to you about anything. We shared the love of cars together, so we always had something to talk about. I will miss you. Love you always.

“ My deepest condolences to the Fredericks clan for the passing of your dad. He had a gruff exterior and quite the temper, but he was the sweetest man inside and I am lucky to have seen that softer side of him over the past 2 decades. He has been reunited with his twin brother forever. Peace to you all at this rough time. God Bless You All - Kim Espinoza
