My Beloved Tom,

You were 1st to say Good Morning, 1st to say Good Night and you were 1st to say Goodbye with memories you left me from our 50th Anniversary on a 35 Day cruise to the Hawaiian, French Polynesian Islands where you passed in the French Polynesian Triangle N9 41 23 W130 13 00.

You filled my life, family and friends completely with memories of laughter that we all are sharing, as of today; Oh how we laugh.

You were easy to be a victim of a joke prank, but you had more fun planning for the joker to be the victim.

You were a dad no other man could duplicate.

I always hear our sons say, "dad taught me"; surviving through camping, fishing, how to BBQ always ending with, "The Best I've Ever Done!"

You taught the boys to laugh, how to cry, never give up and learn something every day.

You loved your family, blood or not and every one loved and respected you. Most of all, family loved to laugh with you. Your laugh will be missed.

You loved and respected all your workers in the Ship Yard Industry. You always told me how you loved each one and you always gave them respect.

We look to the sky and say, "THANK YOU"

Forever your Loving Wife,

Wanda

“ Uncle Tom,
One who never really grew old; His smile was made of sunshine,
and his heart was solid gold! ❤️
We will always remember the beautiful and fun memories you left with us! A man of great integrity and character. Honest, genuine and true. A wonderful husband, father and family man, and a Master of BBQ!
His laugh and smile were infectious and was always such a good sport (no matter what!) Loved those Charger games!!
Thank you Uncle Tom for all of the wonderful times, laughs and memories!
You will be forever Loved and Missed!
God Bless
All My Love,
Niece Wendy ❤️

“ Dad,

You taught me so much about life and how to do so many things: House repairs, car repairs, how to be a good dad, how to tie a tie and polish my shoes, how to be a leader, the virtues of patience, kindness and respect, and so many more; but, my favorite is fishing. I think you told me everything you knew about fishing, but somehow you always caught the fish of the day.

*Thank you Dad for so many wonderful memories!
I love you and miss you,*
