

Pamela Ann Allor

June 21, 1948 - May 3, 2025

Beloved Wife, Grandmother, Mother-in-Law, Aunt, Friend, and Teacher Pamela Ann Allor passed away peacefully after a courageous five-year battle with Lewy body dementia. She was surrounded by her loving wife, Robin Whitlow, and devoted friends. She was a source of strength, compassion, and warmth to all who knew her.

Pam was born in Michigan, and shortly thereafter her parents moved to California,

where she would grow up and build a life rooted in service, education, and love. She quickly became the quintessential California girl—sunny, vibrant, and full of life, with a deep love for the beach, the outdoors, and the simple joys of sunshine and laughter.

She was a dedicated teacher at SDUSD for 36 years. She epitomized the teacher that everyone talks about—someone who truly made a difference. With style, grace, and passion, she cared deeply about the success of her students and inspired countless young minds throughout her career.

She was especially proud to have worked on a project in Jackson, Mississippi, focused on enhancing the success of inner-city students—a cause close to her heart and reflective of her lifelong dedication to equity in education. Pam also taught in the teacher preparation program at Cal Poly Pomona, where she treasured the opportunity to nurture a new crop of educators. Her mentorship helped shape future teachers with the same passion and commitment she exemplified every day in her own classroom.
