

Pauline Alice Sampson

September 3, 1943 - April 3, 2024

Pauline Alice Deterding was born September 3, 1943 in Praire de Rocher Illinois to Albert and Dorothy Deterding. Affectionately nicknamed “Polly”, she was the third of their 5 children. After her father passed away when she was 3 years old, her mother remarried and had her younger sister Carolyn. After high school she attended SIU university until she decided to drive out to California with her friend to start a new life, settling in La Jolla. It was there she met and married her husband Charles Sampson. Polly and Charles had 4 children whom were greatest joy in life. Polly’s interests included travel, fashion, cards and pickleball. Polly touched the lives of all who knew her. She passed away on April 3, 2024 surrounded by her family. She is predeceased by her parents Albert Deterding and Dorothy Minneman and her brothers Charles and Dale Deterding. She is survived by her children Terri (Larry) Brooks, Charles (Shylo) Sampson, Kristi (James) Button and Missi “Tristin” Sampson: her grandchildren Derik, Davin and Corinne Brooks, Braden and Skyler Sampson, Phoenix and Halston Button and great-granddaughter Blake Brooks. She is also survived by her brothers Larry and Albert Deterding and sister Carolyn Schneider.

“ Polly - I will love and miss you forever. You were a friend and a mother to me. You were a true matriarch of your entire family that looked up to you and adored you. To know you was to love you. While my heart feels broken right now, I know you are in heaven and are healed in every way. Because of our faith, I know this is a so long and not a goodbye. Till I see you again my dear friend...
