

Ronald Brown

January 29, 1951 - August 18, 2021

Ronald Brown was born to Bernadine Smith and Christopher Meredith on January 29, 1951 in Colp, Illinois. He had a brother, Michael and two sisters Lileta and Angela. Through his enrollment into the military, Ronald was able to obtain a Bachelor of Science degree in Physics from Purdue University, a Master of Business Administration degree and a Doctorate in Jurisprudence, from National University. Dr. Brown earned his undergraduate degree while also obtaining the commissioned rank of Lieutenant in the United States Navy. Ultimately his passion for learning became a passion to educate the youth, in which he became Professor Brown. He was a teacher for over 2 decades in which predominantly taught math and science amongst other subjects. While achieving his education he became a loving husband to his wife Regina Jackson, to whom he married on November 27, 1971. Soon after he became a devoted father to his children; Kwambe, Rahsaan, Khalila and Rahmaan; grandfather to six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
