“ Tia Coyo you were one of a kind not everyone saw you for who you were you were always loving and genuine not at all the subtle type always came straight across whether others liked it or not I could always count on you for having something smart to say with more than a few choice words included I am thankful for you God created to be just who you were thank you for all the struggle in your life that God allowed to find victory over please pray with Jesus for us all I miss you dearly love you Tia Coyo. Your favorite nephew Michael haha we are all your favorites
