“ My dad was one of the best person I knew, and my favorite. Anytime I was having a rough day, he would always be there to help me through it. He would encourage me to do whatever made me happy. It is amazing to see how many people my dad impacted, especially the many friends he made through gaming. I am thankful to have stumbled upon this 10 years later. He would give me a nudge whenever he saw I was struggling. I know I will never really know how many people were actually impacted by my dad, but it is amazing to see the few he impacted while gaming, and showing me that some of the best friends you can make in life can be the ones you game with.

“ My dad was one of the most favorite people in my life. He was crude, funny, stubborn, but could love and appreciate the things and people in his life. My dad was the biggest supporter in my life, even when I wasn't sure what I was doing. My mom was the love of his life, no question about that. He loved my sister and I, always telling us how proud he was of us and he couldn't wait for our future. I miss him everyday and his phone calls, talking about Wow and Halo, what movies were out. I'm glad a stumbled upon this. I never knew how many lives he truly impacted, I probably never will, but I'm glad my dad had such wonderful people in his life.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Terry's passing. I worked with Terry at UAF, he always bought me a t-shirt when he traveled for work. And more memorable, he always talked about his family. I always felt that he was so blessed with his love for Mary, Elisia, and DeAnara that he couldn't hold it in. My thoughts are with Terry's loved ones during this difficult time.

“ Arlond - Terry

I never met then man in person BUT he made a huge impression on my life - my WOW life. He took a stupid little mage under his shoulder during a dungeon one day and said - hey if you would do this you will do better. I did, thanked him and we accepted each other as friends. He always had a little something to add and if you let him, a little helpful tidbit to move you along. If this is how he treated unknown strangers in a game he must have been an AWESOME man in person. I will miss his little jabs and whispers - hey dummy - don't do that again. RIP my dear friend, rest in peace

“ Terry worked with me back in 1989 and 1990 as a plumbing apprentice. We had lots of great conversations , goofed off a lot and plumbed some beautiful houses. we have kept in touch over the years and just recently were emailing where he told me how proud of his family that he was and filled me in on how everyone was doing. he told me about the vacation that he was looking forward to with Mary and I could read the joy in his words. Rest in peace my friend you will be missed but never forgotten.

“ My sincerest condolences to Terry's family. I am very saddened to have learned of Terry's passing. My favorite memories with him are just talking and discussing life and official Mage business. From one Mage to another, I will miss you dearly. See you in Dalaran in the sky when it is my turn to teleport there. Love your friend Joanna (Cay)
