“ Our hearts are saddened by Jim's passing. My husband, Dan, and I looked forward to seeing him when we were in town and a get together was arranged. He was always just as happy to see us as we were to see him. He will always have a very special place in our hearts, and will be missed. Our deepest condolences to Vince, Claudia, Annette, and the rest of the Paradise family.

“ I'm really saddened by this loss, both for myself personally as well as for Jim's immediate and extended family. Jim was a great guy, to say the least. A long time ago, when I needed a place, he offered me the opportunity to rent a room in his condo. What was supposed to be a short-term situation ended up lasting a couple of years, during which time I got to know Jim very well. During this time he really became a great friend. We had great times playing tennis matches, chess games, and just hanging out chatting about subjects big and small. My time staying with Jim was a time that I will always fondly remember. After I moved out, he continued to stay in touch, even when the winds blew me to Texas and then overseas. I'll always remember his laugh and sense of humor regarding life. He will be missed by all. My wife, Ruth, and I really wish we could make the celebration of life ceremony, but circumstances beyond our control won't allow for it to happen. We will both be there in spirit!

“ I'll never forget how happy Jim was when his beloved dog cruiser and frodo jumped out of the car when I visited san Felipe with his family. They headed right for the beach and having so much fun.
